2013 Developments in Pharmacy Law Seminar XXIV

November 14-17, 2013

Omni Amelia Island Plantation
Amelia Island, Florida

We invite you to join us to attend 11 informative educational sessions and earn 15 hours of legal and pharmacy continuing education credits while networking with your colleagues and friends.

Your choice!

This year when you register for the Developments in Pharmacy Law Seminar you will again have the choice between receiving your conference materials electronically on a thumb drive or in a conference binder.

If you choose to receive your conference materials electronically, you will receive a pre-loaded thumb drive, CE forms and evaluations at the registration desk. One week prior to the conference, you will receive an email with links to download and print the agenda and handouts. We will not have a complimentary print desk so bring your copies. Or you can print in the hotel's business office at cost.

 5:30 pm – 7:00 pm Opening Reception

Friday, November 15, 2013

- 7:00 am – 5:00 pm Registration Open
 7:00 am – 8:00 am Breakfast
 8:00 am – 8:15 am Welcome

8:15 am – 9:45 am Legislative and Regulatory Update and Special Report on Health Care Reform
 This annual session will provide an overview of recently enacted and proposed legislation and regulations that affect pharmacy.
Mary Jo Carden, RPh, JD, Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy; Stacie Maass, RPh, JD, American Pharmacists Association (1.5 credit hours)

9:45 am – 10:00 am Break

10:00 am – 11:00 am Impact and Implementation of the New HITECH Privacy Rules
 In January, the Department of HHS published the final rule implementing The HITECH Act of 2009. This presentation will provide a practical overview for implementing the final rule, which becomes effective in September 2013. Information on new privacy rules under consideration, HHS privacy and security updates, and activities at the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology also will be discussed.
Susan Buckna, JD, ShopKo Stores; Kevin Nicholson, RPh, JD, National Association of Chain Drug Stores (1 credit hour)

11:00 am – 12:00 noon Pharmacy Antitrust Issues: Playing Offense and Defense in Multi-Billion Dollar Disputes
 Competition in the pharmaceutical industry is the focus of ongoing antitrust litigation by pharmacies and enforcement actions by government agencies. Antitrust litigation by pharmacies and the FTC is expected to grow as a result of a recent Supreme Court decision in FTC v. Actavis regarding drug manufacturer “pay for delay” agreements. This session will provide an update on the principal antitrust lawsuits and enforcement actions that exert a major impact on pharmacies.
Don Bell, II, JD, National Association of Chain Drug Stores (1 credit hour)

12:00 noon – 1:00 pm Lunch

1:00 pm – 3:00 pm Case Law Update

Once again, the U.S. Supreme Court issued several opinions impacting pharmacy and the pharmaceutical industry. This presentation will summarize these cases and others, including rulings on cases involving pharmacy board decisions, effect of anti-kickback laws on pharmacy gift cards and coupons, HIPAA and conflicting state laws, pharmacists’ liability, ERISA and PBM duties, pharmacists’ employment discrimination claims, any willing provider laws, and more.

Roger Morris, RPh, JD, Quarles & Brady; William Stilling, RPh, MS, JD, Parsons Behle & Latimer (2 credit hours)

3:00 pm – 3:15 pm Break

3:15 pm – 5:15 pm Current Trends in the Law of Compounding Pharmacy

Due to high-profile events involving contaminated compounded products in recent months, compounding pharmacies have been the focus of increased Congressional scrutiny and FDA investigations. This session will review existing precedents regarding sterile compounding, discuss the FDA’s call for increased federal oversight of compounding pharmacies, and discuss legal implications for the practice and regulation of compounding pharmacy.

Joe Cabaleiro, RPh, Pharmacy Compounding Accreditation Board; Rachael Pontikes, JD, Duane Morris, LLP; Karen Ryle, RPh, Massachusetts Board of Pharmacy (2 credit hours)

6:30 pm – 8:30 pm Reception

Saturday, November 16, 2013

7:00 am – 8:00 am Breakfast

8:00 am – 10:00 am A Case-Based Approach to Pharmacy Ethics: Different and the Same

Study Legal and Pharmacy ethics as they deal with better rather than worse decision-making both for the client and the safe and effective use of drug products. This program attempts to explore legal and pharmacy ethics by examining decisions and incidents of the past in both professions.

Ken Baker, BS Pharm JD, Renaud Cook Drury Mesaros, PA; Bruce D. White, DO, JD, Alden March Bioethics Institute (2 credit hours)

10:00 am – 10:15 am Break

10:15 am – 11:15 am 340B Drug Discount Program: Updates and Changes Affecting Contracting Pharmacies

This session will explore the 340B Discount Drug Program, including recent issues affecting the program, and its impact on contract pharmacies.

Edward Rickert, RPh, JD, Krieg DeVault, LLP; Jaya White, JD, Krieg DeVault, LLP (1 credit hour)

Register Today at www.aspl.org

11:15 am – 12:15 pm Globalization of the Pharmacy Profession

Within the past year, major U.S. retail pharmacy chains have expanded their international presence and purchased stakes in European and South American pharmacy chains. Each international jurisdiction has its own version of FDA, DEA, and local regulators. Each new jurisdiction presents new regulatory challenges.

Eli G. Phillips, Jr., PharmD, JD, University of the Incarnate Word, Feik School of Pharmacy; Joselia Manfio, Prati-Donaduzzi Pharmaceuticals (1 credit hour)

2:00 pm – 4:30 pm Pharmacy Law Educators

This year's pharmacy law education session will present two specific topics.

- The Nuts, Bolts, and Wrenches for Developing a Pharmacy Law Course Syllabus and
- How Much Is Enough or Too Much: Introducing the Legal System to Pharmacy Law Students

(CE credits pending)

Sunday, November 17, 2013

7:00 am – 8:00 am Breakfast

8:00 am – 9:00 am Painful Prescription: Legal Issues and Risks for Prescribing and Dispensing Pain Medications

Given the national focus on the deaths caused by abuse of prescription controlled substances, this program will examine the various actions taken by federal and state agencies in the last year to address prescription pain medication abuse and diversion.

Shannon Cox, JD, King & Spalding; Catherine O'Neil, JD, King & Spalding (1 credit hour)

9:00 am – 10:00 am The Evolving Concept of a Pharmacist's Corresponding Responsibility for Controlled Substances Prescriptions

This presentation will review the history of federal statutory and regulatory provisions that impose obligations on a pharmacist when dispensing controlled substances and will trace the evolution of pharmacists' "corresponding responsibility" through federal criminal cases and DEA administrative actions. The session will provide practical guidance for pharmacists and practice pointers for attorneys representing pharmacists and pharmacies.

Linden Barber, JD, Quarles & Brady; Larry Cote, JD, Quarles & Brady (1 credit hour)

10:00 am – 10:15 am Break

10:15 am – 11:45 am Pharmacy Malpractice Panel

This session will discuss the logistics of defending pharmacies and pharmacists in malpractice cases, including suit prevention, early case evaluation and settlement possibilities, dealing with problematic facts and witnesses, and conflicts between insurers and insureds. The presentation will conclude by studying a successful malpractice defense of a pharmacy and pharmacist.

Joseph McHale, JD, Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young, LLP; Carol Romano, JD, Renaud Cook Drury Mesaros, PA (1.5 credit hours)

ACPE Continuing Education Credits

Participants may earn up to 15 contact hours (1.5 continuing education units) of Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE)-accredited continuing pharmacy education (CPE) credit. Sessions approved for CPE credit are listed with an ACPE universal activity number and number of continuing education units. To receive credit for successful completion for any activity, the participant must complete an attendance form and an activity evaluation form at the conclusion of the program. Verification of participation will be reported to the CPE tracking service, CPE Monitor, within 4 weeks after the program, and will then be accessible to participants at MyCPEMonitor.net.

You will need your NABP e-profile ID to note on your CE form so that it may be reported to CPE Monitor. If you have not yet obtained your NABP e-Profile ID, you may do so by visiting MyCPEMonitor.net, creating an e-Profile, and registering for CPE Monitor. Be sure to register for CPE Monitor to ensure that your e-Profile ID is fully activated.

The Washington State University College of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education.

Continuing Legal Education Credits

If you intend to apply for continuing legal education credits, please be sure to indicate the state (or states) in which you are licensed and the corresponding license number(s) on the conference registration form. Quarles & Brady, LLP will process the CLE credits for the Developments in Pharmacy Law Seminar.

Continuing Legal Education credit will be applied for based on attendee return of the "Continuing Legal Education Credit Certificate of Attendance Form" at the conclusion of the seminar.
